

UNIT 9 / Everyday situations

Describe how you feel

Your goal: Name basic body parts and describe simple symptoms in German.

01 Learn the idea

Learn der Kopf, der Hals, der Bauch, der Rücken and der Fuß. Ich habe Kopfschmerzen means I have a headache; Mein Bauch tut weh means my stomach hurts. These are language patterns for describing a feeling, not advice about what treatment to use.

Use seit with a time expression to describe an ongoing problem: seit gestern means since yesterday. Ask for clarification with Was bedeutet das? if you do not understand a word. In a real conversation, describe your own symptoms accurately rather than copying the example. Practise short sentences that state what hurts and since when.

Words and phrases

German	English
der Kopf	the head
der Bauch	the stomach / belly
Ich habe Kopfschmerzen.	I have a headache.
Mein Hals tut weh.	My throat hurts.
seit gestern	since yesterday

Say each phrase aloud. Listen on the lesson page, then repeat without looking at the English.

02 Conversation and mission

Read the conversation once for meaning. Repeat both roles, then cover the English and perform it again.

Mia

Wie geht es dir?

How are you?

Ben

Nicht gut. Ich habe Kopfschmerzen.

Not well. I have a headache.

Mia

Seit wann?

Since when?

Ben

Seit gestern.

Since yesterday.

Your real-life mission

Label five body parts on a simple sketch. Write two fictional symptom sentences and add a time phrase to one of them.

Plan or write your response here. Try first; a model appears in the answer key.

03 Practice without peeking

Choose one answer per question. For the final question, return to the conversation. Mark difficult items and explain your choice before checking the key.

1. What does “der Kopf” mean?

- A. the head
- B. the stomach / belly
- C. I have a headache.

2. What does “der Bauch” mean?

- A. I have a headache.
- B. the stomach / belly
- C. My throat hurts.

3. What does “Ich habe Kopfschmerzen.” mean?

- A. My throat hurts.
- B. since yesterday
- C. I have a headache.

4. What does seit gestern mean?

- A. Until tomorrow
- B. Since yesterday
- C. Every morning

5. What problem does Ben describe?

- A. A headache
- B. A sore foot
- C. A stomach ache

Reflection: Which phrase will you use this week?

04 Answer key and review

1. A - the head

“der Kopf” means “the head”. Read the example aloud, then use it in your own sentence.

2. B - the stomach / belly

“der Bauch” means “the stomach / belly”. Read the example aloud, then use it in your own sentence.

3. C - I have a headache.

“Ich habe Kopfschmerzen.” means “I have a headache.”. Read the example aloud, then use it in your own sentence.

4. B - Since yesterday

Seit introduces the start of an ongoing period; gestern is yesterday.

5. A - A headache

Ben says Ich habe Kopfschmerzen.

One possible mission response

Kopf, Hals, Bauch, Rücken, Fuß. Ich habe Kopfschmerzen. Mein Hals tut seit gestern weh.

Your own answer can differ. Check whether it completes the task and uses the lesson's patterns.

Build the habit

Today: say five phrases aloud. Tomorrow: cover the answers and try the quiz again. In one week: repeat the conversation with your own details.
