

UNIT 1 / Your first conversations

Hello, Germany!

Your goal: Choose greetings for the time of day and the person you meet.

01 Learn the idea

Start with Hallo for a relaxed greeting. Guten Morgen fits the morning, Guten Tag the daytime and Guten Abend the evening. Gute Nacht is normally a farewell before sleep, not a greeting when arriving at dinner. Say each expression aloud and connect it with a real moment in your day.

Use Wie geht es dir? with someone you know well. Wie geht es Ihnen? is the polite version for an unfamiliar adult. Answer with Gut, danke before returning the question. Tschüss is informal; Auf Wiedersehen is a useful polite goodbye. German nouns such as Morgen and Tag begin with capital letters.

Words and phrases

German	English
Guten Morgen!	Good morning!
Guten Abend!	Good evening!
Wie geht es dir?	How are you? (informal)
Gut, danke.	Good, thank you.
Auf Wiedersehen!	Goodbye! (polite)

Say each phrase aloud. Listen on the lesson page, then repeat without looking at the English.

02 Conversation and mission

Read the conversation once for meaning. Repeat both roles, then cover the English and perform it again.

Mia

Guten Morgen, Ben! Wie geht es dir?

Good morning, Ben! How are you?

Ben

Gut, danke. Und dir?

Good, thank you. And you?

Mia

Auch gut. Bis später!

Good too. See you later!

Your real-life mission

Record three greetings: to a friend in the morning, a shop assistant in the afternoon and a neighbour in the evening. Add a suitable goodbye to each.

Plan or write your response here. Try first; a model appears in the answer key.
