

UNIT 2 / Numbers and identity

Mission: your German profile

Your goal: Fill in a simple form and introduce a fictional person.

01 Learn the idea

Forms often use Vorname for first name, Nachname for surname, Wohnort for place of residence and Alter for age. Read the label before answering: a country does not belong in the Wohnort box if the form asks for a city. Use invented details when practising instead of sharing personal contact information.

Turn form entries into complete sentences with the patterns you already know: Sie heißt Mia. Sie wohnt in Köln. Sie spricht Deutsch. When changing ich to sie, change the verb as well. This review brings together names, numbers, countries and sein; accuracy with short sentences matters more than length.

Words and phrases

German	English
der Vorname	the first name
der Nachname	the surname
der Wohnort	the place of residence
das Alter	the age
Sie wohnt in Köln.	She lives in Cologne.

Say each phrase aloud. Listen on the lesson page, then repeat without looking at the English.

02 Conversation and mission

Read the conversation once for meaning. Repeat both roles, then cover the English and perform it again.

Tutor

Wie heißt sie?

What is her name?

Ben

Sie heißt Mia Klein. Sie ist zwanzig.

Her name is Mia Klein. She is twenty.

Tutor

Wo wohnt sie?

Where does she live?

Ben

Sie wohnt in Köln.

She lives in Cologne.

Your real-life mission

Invent a person. Fill in Vorname, Nachname, Wohnort and Alter, then introduce that person in four complete German sentences.

Plan or write your response here. Try first; a model appears in the answer key.

03 Practice without peeking

Choose one answer per question. For the final question, return to the conversation. Mark difficult items and explain your choice before checking the key.

Reflection: Which phrase will you use this week?

04 Answer key and review

1. A - the first name

“der Vorname” means “the first name”. Read the example aloud, then use it in your own sentence.

2. B - the surname

“der Nachname” means “the surname”. Read the example aloud, then use it in your own sentence.

3. C - the place of residence

“der Wohnort” means “the place of residence”. Read the example aloud, then use it in your own sentence.

4. C - Nachname

Nachname is surname; Vorname is first name.

5. B - Klein

Ben introduces her as Mia Klein.

One possible mission response

Vorname: Mia. Nachname: Klein. Wohnort: Köln. Alter: 20. Sie heißt Mia Klein. Sie wohnt in Köln. Sie ist zwanzig. Sie spricht Deutsch.

Your own answer can differ. Check whether it completes the task and uses the lesson's patterns.

Build the habit

Today: say five phrases aloud. Tomorrow: cover the answers and try the quiz again. In one week: repeat the conversation with your own details.
